Carol Pufall, Town Treasurer, Marty Milanowski gave overview of town's finances due to Treasurer absence. $47,897.28 in checking account, $20,670.60 in money market, $40,514.02 in special project account, $22,839.33 in ARPA checking account. Transferred $500 from money market to a new business savings account which now has a balance of $4,580.17.

Skip Radosevich, Town Supervisor, Town hall bathroom has working fixtures in one room, on time for election day. Other progress still stalled waiting on fixture. A new refrigerator for the town hall was purchased and expected to arrive sometime in May.

Tony Johanik, Town Supervisor, N. Torkko road was attended to with small loads of gravel to fix bad pothole spots and washboarding. Still need to do Colby Rd. We are looking into getting new welder for the town garage instead of the road crew using their own personal one. CB radio is now in the grader and the grader plow has been painted. Road inspection is delayed due to weather. Town hall floors were cleaned/waxed.

Joe Mattson, Town Clerk, Election on April 5th went well with 85 voters. There was some vandalism on the posting board on the corner of Torkko Rd. & County Highway G, someone shot it 4 times and will need to have the road crew fix. A police report was made by the clerk. Reminder of Annual Meeting at 5pm on April 19th and also Board of Review coming up.
